INTERIM MANAGEMENT REPORT OF FUND PERFORMANCE
FOR THE SIX-MONTH PERIOD ENDED JUNE 30, 2024

INCEPTION DATE
JANUARY 31, 2019

THE PORTFOLIO MANAGEMENT TEAM
PEMBROKE MANAGEMENT LTD.

This interim Management Report of Fund Performance contains financial highlights, but does not contain either interim or annual financial statements of the investment fund. You can get a copy of the interim or annual financial statements at your request, and at no cost, by calling 1-800-668-7383, by writing to us at 150 King Street West, Suite 1210, Toronto, Ontario M5H 1J9 or by visiting our website at www.pml.ca or SEDAR at www.sedar.com. Unitholders may also contact us using one of these methods (except on the SEDAR website) to request a copy of the investment fund's proxy voting policies and procedures, proxy voting disclosure record, or quarterly portfolio disclosure.

Investment Objective and Strategies

Pembroke Canadian All Cap Fund (the "Fund") seeks to provide long-term growth through capital appreciation by investing primarily in equity securities of mid to large capitalization Canadian companies. To achieve the Fund's investment objective we invest primarily in companies that have sustainable growth opportunities, a solid financial position, and a capable management team. The Fund may invest in equity securities of small, medium and large capitalization companies. The Fund focuses primarily on mid to large capitalization companies but may also invest up to 30% of its assets in small capitalization companies. The strategy involves identifying stocks with either sustainable growth characteristics or unrecognized intrinsic value from a universe of primarily mid to large-sized Canadian companies listed on a recognized exchange in Canada and/or the United States. The Fund may invest a maximum of 10% of its assets in equity securities of foreign publicly listed issuers.

Risk

The overall risk of the Fund is as described in the Simplified Prospectus. There were no material changes to the Fund over the financial period that affected the overall level of risk associated with an investment in the Fund. The Fund is suitable for investors who have a medium tolerance for risk and are seeking long-term capital growth.

Results of Operations

For the six-month period ended June 30, 2024, the Fund posted a return of 11.57%. In comparison, the Fund's benchmark index, the S&P/TSX Composite posted a return of 6.05% for the same period. For the year ended December 31, 2023, the Fund posted a return of 18.70% compared to the Fund's benchmark which posted a 11.75% return.

Pembroke's portfolios are generally differentiated from the benchmarks they seek to outperform. In this case, the Fund is more concentrated and has very different industry exposures than its benchmark, the S&P/TSX Composite Index. By investing in a select group of high-quality growth companies, Pembroke seeks to deliver superior risk-adjusted returns when measured over the long term while accepting that short-term relative performance can vary negatively or positively to a significant degree. The Fund outperformed the S&P/TSX Composite Index in the first half of 2024 with the outperformance entirely attributable to positive security selection with an outsized contribution from the Financials, Consumer Discretionary and Information Technology sectors. Returns were broadly distributed with over 71% of holdings contributing positively and all but three sectors adding to performance.

Market tailwinds propelled returns in the first half, as investors anticipated a cresting of inflationary pressures and an easing of interest rates, leading to an expansion of valuation multiples. Still, corporate earnings expectations remain subject to significant uncertainty, given headwinds of decelerating economic growth and a deteriorating employment picture.

Two stocks were significant contributors to performance in the first half of 2024.

Shares in AtkinsRéalis ("ATRL"), formerly known as SNC Lavalin, have continued to rally in the first half of 2024 following a stellar 2023. ATRL has been in the midst of a major transformation for the past few years, and the finish line has never been clearer. The major cost overruns associated with their LSTK projects are behind them, they are committed to divesting their Linxon joint venture with Hitachi and are seeking a sale of their remaining stake in the 407 highway. What remains will be a world-class pure-play engineering services firm, levered to tailwinds such as decarbonization, aging infrastructure and climate change. Major stimulus such as the IIJA support higher visibility and growth prospects in the coming years, and a renewed interest in nuclear energy around the world as a viable base-load solution present an under-appreciated growth vertical for ATRL. They hold the rights to the CANDU reactor technology, and just recently entered into an agreement for a 30-year life extension project for 2 CANDU reactors located in Qinshan, China. Pembroke feels that ATRL remains attractively valued compared to their peers, and they expect the market will fully appreciate the strength of the underlying business as the simplification process comes to an end.

Shares in Aritzia ("ATZ"), a vertically integrated design house for everyday luxury apparel, rallied in the first half of the year on financial results that demonstrated that the company's efforts to refresh its product portfolio were resonating with consumers and driving improved demand. The company endured a tumultuous 2023 with sales that lagged expectations due to a somewhat stale product lineup. However, management recognized this issue and took corrective action, ramping up investments in fashion innovation and boosting customer engagement. Despite a challenging consumer environment, ATZ delivered a revamped fashion portfolio that resonated with clients and drove impressive results. Longer term, Pembroke remains optimistic about the company's brand strength and believe it has an attractive growth runway with new store openings in the United States and increased e-commerce penetration.

Results of Operations (Cont'd)

Two stocks were significant detractors to performance in the first half of 2024.

Shares in BRP ("DOO"), a global leading manufacturer in powersports vehicles, declined during the period. The company reduced its outlook, reflecting challenges such as softer demand, unfavorable winter conditions impacting sales of snowmobiles, and more promotional activity by competitors. Amidst a cautious consumer spending backdrop and elevated interest rates, DOO made the strategic decision to adjust its production levels downward to help dealers manage rising floorplan financing costs. Despite the broader industry's cyclical downturn, DOO remains a market leader with a mass-customization manufacturing moat that is set to gain market share. With a strong balance sheet, the company is well positioned to pursue share buybacks and invest in R&D, further enhancing product innovation and solidifying its market position as the cycle recovers.

Shares in Boyd Group Services ("BYD"), one of North America's largest operators of corporate-owned auto-collision repair centers, fell in the first half of 2024. The decline in share price can be attributed to a combination of short-term challenges and temporary shifts in the market. Used car pricing is normalizing to pre-COVID levels, increasing the frequency of total losses and leading to a drop in repair demand. Boyd's recent focus on opening new locations over acquisitions has also temporarily reduced profitability, though these initiatives are expected to yield higher returns on invested capital in the long run. Additional short-term factors, such as weather-related declines in collision frequency, changes in consumer behavior due to economic uncertainties, and higher insurance premiums resulting in claim deferrals, have further impacted the business. Given these challenges, Boyd is trading at a 10-year valuation low despite recent private transactions in the sector having occurred at significantly higher multiples. In the long run, the increasing complexity and cost of repairs, along with advancements in scanning and calibration requirements, provide a positive outlook for future growth. Pembroke sees a significant upside potential for Boyd and as such it remains a core position in the fund.

As at June 30, 2024, the total net asset value of the Fund was $32.8 million as compared to $25 million as at December 31, 2023. The cash position was 4.73% of net asset value. The number of units outstanding in the Fund as at June 30, 2024 was 1.9 million compared with 1.6 million as at December 31, 2023.

Unrealized appreciation on investments as at June 30, 2024 was $5.2 million as compared to $2.7 million as at December 31, 2023 resulting in an increase in unrealized appreciation on investments of $2.5 million. The Fund had net realized gains on investments sold during the period of $0.3 million.

Fees and Expenses

During the six-month period, the Fund paid a total of $41,393 in operating expenses. The management expense ratio ("MER") for unitholders was 0.26%. There are no management fees charged to the Fund as the management fees are charged directly to the unitholders outside the Fund. Refer to the Management Fees section for further details on this.

The Fund was previously a Pooled Fund and the MER did not account for various fund expenses that will now be incurred as a mutual fund. For the period the Fund was a pooled fund, the expenses would have been higher if the Fund was a prospectus mutual fund.

Unitholder Activity

Throughout the six-month period, $5.2 million flowed into the Fund by way of subscriptions and $0.6 million flowed out of the Fund as a result of redemptions.

Related Party Transactions

PPW is the Fund's Manager. The Fund Manager provides the day-to-day management of the business and operations of the Fund. The fees paid to the Fund Manager are shown in the "Management Fees" section of this report. Pembroke Management Ltd. ("Pembroke") is the portfolio manager of the Fund. Pembroke is the parent company of the Fund Manager, PPW. Pembroke's fees are paid by the Fund Manager, for services including investment, management, administration, advisory and accounting. The related party transactions take place in the normal course of operations and are measured at the exchange amount, which is the amount of consideration established and agreed to by the related parties.

Recent Developments

Outlook

Equity markets have rebounded from a difficult 2022 with a strong 18-month stretch, but significant uncertainty remains pertaining to near-term macroeconomic trends in inflation, interest rates, and economic growth. This is a challenging environment for both management teams and investors alike, but it is also one that is rife with opportunities. For the aligned, disciplined, and well-financed capital allocators that run Pembroke's portfolio companies, the economic turmoil is surfacing opportunities to go on the offensive by consolidating or taking market share from weakened competitors. Pembroke expects shorter-term volatility to persist as the market digests developments pertaining to economic fundamentals, but are excited about the longer-term prospects and valuation multiples of their holdings.

Past Performance

The indicated rates of return are the historical annual compounded total return changes in unit values and reinvestment of all distributions and do not take into account sales, redemptions, distributions or other optional charges that would have reduced returns. Mutual funds are not guaranteed, their values may increase or decrease and past performance may not be repeated.

The Fund's performance numbers have been prepared under the assumption that all distributions are reinvested in additional units of the Fund. If you hold this Fund outside of a registered plan, income and capital gains distributions that are paid to you increase your income for tax purposes, whether paid to you in cash or reinvested in additional units. The amount of the reinvested taxable distributions is added to the adjusted cost base of the units that you own. This would decrease your capital gains or increase your capital losses when you later redeem from the Fund, thereby ensuring that you are not taxed on this amount again. Please consult your tax advisor regarding your personal tax situation.

Year-by-year returns

The bar chart indicates the Fund's performance for each of the years shown, and illustrates how the Fund's performance has changed from year to year. The bar chart shows, in percentage terms, how much an investment made on the first day of each financial year would have grown or decreased by the end of the financial year. The percentage figures indicated have been rounded to the nearest whole number due to space constraints.

(1) Six-month return to June 30, 2024

(2) This chart shows how the units of the Fund have performed since January 31, 2019. The performance of the Fund for the period between January 31, 2019 and December 31, 2019 is not representative as the Fund fundamentally changed its investment objective on January 1, 2020.

(1) This information is provided as at June 30 or December 31 of the period shown, as applicable. (2) The management expense ratio ("MER") is calculated in accordance with National Instrument 81-106, based on expenses for the stated year (including Harmonized Sales Tax, Goods and Service Tax, income tax and interest) but excluding foreign withholding taxes, commissions and other portfolio transaction costs, and is expressed as an annualized percentage of the daily average net asset value during the year. PPW may, at its discretion and without notice to unitholders, waive or absorb certain operating expenses. The Fund has had expenses waived or absorbed for all the years presented. The waiver or absorption of operating expenses is expected to continue for an indefinite period of time and can be terminated by PPW at its discretion and without prior notice. (3) The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period. (4) The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor trades its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher a Fund's portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the period. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a Fund.

Management fees paid directly by unitholders of the Fund to PPW through a redemption of units was $0.1 million for the six-month period ended June 30, 2024.

Under the Pembroke Family Advantage Program, the value of family holdings of all family members designated by the investor will be considered to determine the management fee applicable to all family members. In order to benefit from the Pembroke Family Advantage Program, family members must be designated by the investor using the form prepared by PPW and must be approved by PPW prior to any management fee reduction being applicable. Management fees are determined based on the amount of assets under management with PPW and Pembroke.

All management fees were used by the Manager to pay costs for managing the investment portfolio, providing investment analysis and recommendations, making investment decisions, and providing other services. For the period ended June 30, 2024, none of the management fees received by the Manager were used to fund commission payments and other dealer compensation (collectively "distribution-related costs") paid to registered dealers and brokers for units of the Fund bought and held by investors.
